

7
OCT

Frescativägen 16
Stockholm University

Ecosystem-based legal frameworks for the Baltic Sea

Stockholm Environmental Law and Policy Centre (SELPC) and Baltic Ecosystem Adaptive Management (BEAM) invites you to a transdisciplinary conference.

7 October, 09.00 - 17.00 + 17.00 - 22.00 Mingle/Baltic Bar

Please register for the seminar before 23 September to:
erica.grahn@juridicum.su.se, 08-16 21 47

Panels:

- * Law and Ecology
- * Ecosystem based law on fisheries
- * BEAM projects on eutrophication and laws of the Baltic
- * Concluding discussion on ecosystem-based legal frameworks

Program and more information: su.se/beam

Stockholm Environmental Law and Policy Centre
Baltic Ecosystem Adaptive Management

Stockholm University

Conference programme

09:00 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Jonas Ebbesson, Professor, Dean and Director of SELPC

Thorsten Blenckner, Associate professor at Stockholm Resilience Centre and BEAM Network Coordinator

SESSION I: LAW AND ECOLOGY

Carl Folke, Professor and Scientific Director at Stockholm Resilience Centre

Henrik Josefsson, Doctoral Candidate at Uppsala University: At the interfield of law and ecology

Ida Reuterswård, Swedish Ministry of the Environment: Ecosystem based management in Helcom and the EU – experiences of intergovernmental co-operation

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Jonas Ebbesson

10:30-11:00 Coffee

11:00 SESSION II: ECOSYSTEM BASED LAW ON FISHERIES

Gabriel Michanek, Professor at Uppsala University, and Anna Christensen, Postdoc, Swedish Institute for the Marine Environment: Ecosystem based fisheries management

Henrik Österblom, Associate professor at Stockholm Resilience Centre

Märta Zetterberg, Legal advisor, Swedish Agency for Marine and Water Management: Practical experiences with ecosystem-based fishery management: does it exist?

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Thorsten Blenckner

12:30 Lunch

13:30 SESSION III: BEAM PROJECTS ON EUTROPHICATION AND THE LAWS OF THE BALTIC SEA

International and EU Law in the Baltic Sea: a Basis for Social-ecological Resilience

Brita Bohman, Doctoral candidate at Stockholm University: Prerequisites and potential obstacles to effective legal governance in the Baltic Sea area

Comparative Legal Research on National Approaches

Annika Nilsson, Lecturer at Uppsala University, former Postdoc at BEAM: Legal approaches to controlling emissions of nutrients - a comparative search for ecosystem based management

Helle Tegner Anker, Professor at Copenhagen University: Report from Denmark

Maciej Nyka, Dr at Gdansk University: Report from Poland

Kaarel Relve, Lecturer at University of Tartu: Report from Estonia

Annika Nilsson: Report from Sweden

15:00 Coffee

Emission trading

Katak Malla, Researcher at Stockholm University: Legal prerequisites for a nutrient trading scheme to control eutrophication in the Baltic Sea

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Jonas Ebbesson

16:00 SESSION IV: CONCLUDING DISCUSSION ON ECOSYSTEM-BASED LEGAL FRAMEWORKS

Jonas Ebbesson

Anna Jöborn, Head of Science Affairs Department the Swedish Agency for Marine and Water Management (HaV)

Ida Reuterswärd

Carl Folke

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Thorsten Blenckner

17:00-22:00 BALTIC BAR AND MINGLE

Snacks food offered by BEAM. Please bring cash for purchases in the bar.

Read more about Baltic Bar.

The conference is held in English and is free of charge.

For program updates and more information please visit:

<http://www.su.se/ostersjocentrum/english/beam/legal-aspects-of-the-ecosystem-approach/conference>

Please register for the conference no later than 23 September to: erica.grahn@juridicum.su.se, 08-16 21 47.

Don't forget to indicate if you have any food allergies and if you wish to attend only the conference and not the Baltic Bar.

Welcome!

Stockholm Environmental
Law and Policy Centre

Baltic Ecosystem Adaptive Management