

A decorative background element consisting of a stylized, dark blue leafy branch with several leaves and small circular accents, extending from the left side of the slide.

Master's programme in International Commercial Arbitration Law (ICAL)

Stockholm
University

DIRECTORS OF THE ICAL LL.M. PROGRAMME

Daria Kozłowska-Rautiainen
Senior Lecturer

Crina Baltag
Associate Professor

STRUCTURE OF THE ICAL PROGRAMME

Autumn semester

International Commercial
Arbitration
(Incl. Mock)

30 ECTS
20 weeks

Spring semester

Advanced
International Arbitration

15 ECTS
10 weeks

Master Thesis Project

15 ECTS
10 weeks

Guest lectures with top specialists

WHY ICAL?

- 18 years of experience
- Ranked No. 1
- More than 400 students from over 70 jurisdictions
- Successful participation in international dispute resolution student competitions, like the VIS Moot
- Excellent employability outcomes
- Master Theses awarded prizes and published in leading academic journals

WHY ARBITRATION LL.M. IN STOCKHOLM?

- International arbitration hub:
 - SCC Arbitration Institute
 - Top specialists
 - International events

WHO SHOULD APPLY TO ICAL?

Those who are:

- Interested in commercial arbitration – experienced or not
- Motivated to study an established, but evolving area of law
- Good team players, open to other points of view
- Craving an international experience
- Looking to broaden their professional network and to become part of the ICAL family

Follow us on LinkedIn:

LLM in International Commercial Arbitration (ICAL)