6. What was the best about the course?

What was the best about the course?

That the exam came before the essay

Interesting subjects and knowledgeable teachers

The teachers and the subject

That the course covers different parts of law which makes it interesting. Writing an essay and freely choosing the topic for the upstate was also good.

To practise english. To get some knowledge of the international and EU labour law instruments and some different theoretical perspective of migration and labour law.

The teaching and seminars! I've learned a lot, thank you for that :)

That I learned a lot from the seminars

7. What improvements would you suggest?

What improvements would you suggest?

The seminars on international labour standards were more like lectures. I think the course could benefit from one lecture on the topic and then on seminar which slow more in depth discussions.

The course is very heavy with both an exam and an essay, maybe consider if both is needed.

Maybe add one or two lectures

Having more examples of old tests to practice on before the exam.

I would prefer a bit more the EU-internal-perspective. Some of the literature should be updated, especially some of the texts from "Migrants at work". To be able to understand problems and aims with regulations and directives its important to have updated informaton about the situation today to understand the context. For some seminars we were asked to study the directions carefully. Its hard to do that and understand them, unless you have a context to relate to.

I would suggest sending the material (compendium) to a publisher so it can be printed and bought at Akademibokhandeln. Sometimes the preparation material for seminars was a little too comprehensive, whereas I would be stressed to read it all and not have time to fully understand the material or gain a deeper understanding of the topics of a few texts.

I felt that sometimes there was not enough time to prepare for seminars.

I would also have liked to have a few more lectures.

Lastly I think that there was not any time to start working on the essay before one had finished all of the seminars, which was not great since it became rather stressful. Preparing for the seminars took a lot of time and there was not much time left after that to write the essay during those weeks.

8. Anything else you would like to share with us?

Anything else you would like to share with us?

No

The best course I've read so far

The reason why I've answered "3" above is due to question 1 that I found quite difficult, despite participating actively on seminars etc.
