

ICER: International and Comparative Education Research

Colloquium Program Spring 2022

All sessions are in Stockholm time

January

Date and time: Monday 10, at 10:00-12:00

Name: Dr. Kristine Thibault, New England College, New Hampshire

Title: The Importance of Teacher Well Being in the Classroom

Zoom: <https://stockholmuniversity.zoom.us/j/63979610855>

Biographical. Kristine Thibault is Associate Professor of Education and Director of Teacher Certification at New England College. Her research focus is on Positive Psychology, Teacher Morale, and Teacher SEL.

February

Date and time: Wednesday February 2, at 13:00-15:00

Name: Professor Florian Kiuppis, University of Freiburg

Title: Processes of Differentiation in Inclusive Physical Education: Insights into a Comparative and International Research Project

Zoom: <https://stockholmuniversity.zoom.us/j/68688302691>

Biographical: Florian Kiuppis is Professor of Theories, Concepts and Methods of Inclusive Education at the Catholic University of Applied Sciences Freiburg in Germany. He holds a PhD from Humboldt University, Berlin (Comparative Education Centre), worked as a Professor of Inclusive Education in Norway, and is President of the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society (NOCIES).

Readings: <https://www.tandfonline.com/doi/full/10.1080/17430437.2016.1225882>

Date and Time: Thursday 17th, at 13:00-15:00

Name: Dr. Heidi Layne, Jyväskylä University

Title: Navigating everyday multiculturalism and racism -experiences of children and youths in Finland and Singapore.

Zoom: <https://stockholmuniversity.zoom.us/j/66593983606>

Reading: Education reforms within neoliberal paradigms: A comparative look at the Singaporean and Finnish education systems: Asia Pacific Journal of Education: Vol 40, No 4 \(tandfonline.com\)

Heidi Layne is a senior lecturer in Sustainable and Global Education at the ICER partner University of Jyväskylä, Finland. She has lectured at the University of Helsinki, and as Research Scientist at the National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. Her background is in social context of education: low-income families, understanding everyday multiculturalism, racism, and transitions in education in Singapore and Finland.

March

Date and Time: Wednesday 30th, at 13:00-15:00

Name: Dr. Rebecca Ye, Stockholm University

Title: “Stockpiling Skills: The mobilisation of workforce development and adult learning strategies in crisis moments and in small nation-states”

Zoom: <https://stockholmuni.zoom.us/j/62664670797>

April

Date and Time: Monday 4th at 13:00-15:00

Name: Dr. Ali Reza Majlesi, Stockholm University

Title: The emergence of trouble in turn-taking in human-robot interactions: The case of projection and anticipation of turn completion.

Zoom:

<https://stockholmuni.zoom.us/j/63925061148?pwd=SWJEV1lkDN5K3BMOU4weWZvZ3FIQT09>, Meeting ID: 639 2506 1148, Passcode: 059133

May

Date and Time: Monday 9th at 13-15.

Names: Associate Professor Susanne Kreitz-Sandberg Stockholm University and Professor Elina Lahelma University of Helsinki

Title: How to apply a comparative case study approach in the field of higher education research: examples from working with gender inclusion in Finish and Swedish teacher education.

Zoom: <https://stockholmuni.zoom.us/j/63227613312>

Link to article: <https://journals.oslomet.no/index.php/nordiccie/article/view/4052>

Biographical: Elina Lahelma is Professor Emerita at the University of Helsinki, Faculty of Education. She has acted as leader in many Nordic projects aiming to include gender perspectives into teacher education.

Susanne Kreitz-Sandberg is associate professor in International and Comparative Education at Stockholm University. She has worked with gender inclusion in higher education both in her research and through applied work in higher education teaching.

Chair: Professor Meeri Hellstén

Email: meeri.hellsten@edu.su.se

All welcome!