

Registration for examinations and re- examinations

This information applies only for written seated exams taking place in the centrally-administered examination halls at Stockholm University. You write the exam in a writing room (on paper or on a computer) as part of your course.

Preregistration is mandatory and required when taking an exam/re-examination. If you do not register in advance you cannot participate. You must register in Ladok no later than 10 days before the exam. To write the exam, you must be able to present a valid form of identification at the time of the exam. If you are writing a re-exam, please email studentexp@sociology.su.se for help if you need to be re-registered or need assistance with registration to the re-examination. This must be done at least two weeks before the exam date.

Find your exam venue

To find the room you have been assigned to take your exam in, please open your own schedule, or the course's schedule: <https://schema.su.se/?lang=en> and follow the steps listed below. NOTE! Your personal schedule will only show the courses you are registered for the current semester. Re-exams from the previous semester can be found by looking up the course instance and the course code of the semester in question by choosing Advanced search on: <https://schema.su.se/?lang=en>

1. On the schedule-row(s) for the exam, you will find a link in the column "Exam room". If the exam is scheduled to take place in more than one room, click on a link of your choice for the exam. If you have subscribed to your schedule, you will find the same link in the calendar event's description. Click on the link.
2. A new web page with the exam's details will open. To find out your exam room, enter your 12-digit Swedish ID number with hyphen (YYYYMMDD-XXXX) in the box "Student id". Click then on the green button "See schedule".

Information about the room you have been assigned will be available at the earliest 5–2 calendar days (incl. public holidays and weekends) before the exam. Your seat number in the room will be normally displayed on a list in the examination room.
