

NS0002 Swedish for international students and researchers, course 2, 7,5 Higher Educational Credits (HEC)

Learning outcomes

Upon completion of the course, the student is expected to:

1. - recount and comment on oral and written information, that has everyday vocabulary and common content,
2. - conduct short social conversations about informal topics,
3. - write basic texts such as short messages about well-known topics and personal hobbies and basic personal letters.

For a Pass all the learning outcomes and grading criteria must be fulfilled.

Passed

The student can on the whole with adequate vocabulary and to some extent correct application of basic grammatical rules

1. - recount and comment on oral and written information, that has everyday vocabulary and common content,
2. - conduct short social conversations about informal topics,
3. - write basic texts such as short messages about well-known topics and personal hobbies and basic personal letters.

Failed

The student does not give proof of that she/he can

1. - recount and comment on oral and written information, that has everyday vocabulary and common content, and/or
2. - conduct short social conversations about informal topics, and/or
3. - write basic texts such as short messages about well-known topics and personal hobbies and basic personal letters.

The student has not fulfilled all the learning outcomes and/or has not completed all course tasks and can therefore not be allocated a grade.